SERVICES

Unlike many other companies offering care to your special companion animal(s), marla4pets offers a free initial meeting with you and your animals. We don't want you to select us because you've paid for an initial consultation and now feel obligated.

Our job is to meet your needs and those of your animal. We want to make your time away from your home as stress-free as possible for you and your animal.

For your friend, that may mean games of fetch, feeding/watering, providing medication, walks and talks, or just the comfort of having a human in the house. For you, that means providing you with peace-of-mind. In addition to caring for you animals, we can turn lights on and off, bring in the mail, and water the plants; little things to make your home look "lived-in" while you are away.

The needs of our clients and their animals often change and we adapt our services to meet their growing needs. Please phone us at 301-509-8850 or email us at marla4pets@aol.com if you have any questions about our services or would like to set up a meeting so that we may care for your animals in the future.

🐾 ABOUT MARLA4PETS 🐾

What makes marla4pets a good choice for your animal care? Years of experience caring for both domestic and wild animals.

My experience with wildlife began after Max, my Shepherd mix, caught a wild bird. I took it to a local wildlife sanctuary for rehabilitation where I became a volunteer, then a staff member. I cared for injured/orphaned wildlife, learning the best ways to handle, feed and medicate them. I developed a greater appreciation of the need to let them remain wild and not turn them into human companions. Many domestic animals are available to provide companionship for people who can offer them good homes and now I focus on providing care for them when "their people" cannot.

Companion animals have been a part of my life for as long as I can remember. I have cared for dogs, cats, hamsters, birds and rabbits.

My experience includes daily walks, feeding, cleaning and providing medication for such ailments as Lupus and Addison's Disease. There have been emergency vet visits and regular check-ups. Games of fetch, demands for cookies and room under the covers has also required my attention! The same care I provide for my companion animals, members of my family, is the kind I offer your animals while you are away, whether it be for a day or a week or longer.

🐾 WHAT OUR CLIENTS ARE SAYING... 🐾

"Of course, I hate to leave my dog for any extended period of time, but when I have to, I can rest easy that the care Marla gives to my dog, Elvis, is the next best care to my own. Marla not only takes good care of Elvis, but she is also very attentive and gives him lots of TLC while I am gone."

— Donna

"Marla is marvelous! We were pleased and surprised when we came back from Europe to find that our dogs had taken our absences in stride (because Marla had pampered them with so much love and attention). We trust her implicitly with our "kids" and our home!"

— Robyn & Dari

It's not easy to find someone so trustworthy, honest and reliable who also has such a way with animals. Marla often cares for my dog and three parakeets because I travel a lot. Once when I was out of state, one of my budgies needed medical attention [see the picture of her sitting on her eggs!] and Marla quickly got her to a top avian vet for care. I recommend her highly. Having used other petsitters I can honestly say she is the best.

— Holly

Marla is the most trustworthy person we've ever known. Her visits have ranged from one-night stays to as long as 10 days as the sole caregiver/companion. Marla lives in our home with the respect of a guest and the wherewithal of an animal lover. It is hard to explain the comfort and peace of mind that comes with her being in our home. Her passion for animals is unparalleled to anyone we've ever known which makes her the perfect choice (and frankly, the only choice) for our Rottweiler-Basset-Hound-mix-of-a-mutt, Bacon. She genuinely loves him and he knows it.

We recommend her without hesitation and wouldn't ever go away without Bacon if it weren't for her. She is a passionate, honest, conscientious person who will love your animals as if they were her own, because when they are her responsibility, they ARE her own. And that's the kind of person you want in your home and in your pet's life.

— Lauren, Michael and Grant

Marla is terrific, responsible, reliable, generous, and kind to people AND to animals. She's the best pet auntie our 4-legged crowd could have and they love her as much as we do. She takes excellent care of sick, geriatric, and even hyperactive pets. Anything they need, she'll supply. In our case, Marla cared for one old dog who needed pills twice a day, one young but sick dog who needed daily treatments, and one healthy hyperactive dog who needed constant attention and reassurance. Plus, she tended to our aging cat who needed antibiotics for a nasty infection. They all thrived and recovered, thanks to Marla's consistent and thorough, loving attention.
